Solution to Exercise 143
Key
To the student

English Grammar in Use Supplementary Exercises is for intermediate and advanced students who want extra practice in grammar, without help from a teacher.

There are 200 exercises in this new edition. Each exercise relates to a unit or units in English Grammar in Use new edition 2004, with the unit number(s) at the top of the page. All the answers are given in the Key (pages 121–136). Some exercises ask you to use your own ideas. For these, you can check the Example answers in the Key. You can use this book if you don't have English Grammar in Use, but for an explanation of the grammar points, you need to check in English Grammar in Use.

The grammar points covered in the book are not in order of difficulty, so you can go straight to the parts where you need the most practice. Where there are several exercises on one grammar point, however, the easier ones come first. It's a good idea to do each exercise, check your answers and then go on to the next one.

Many of the exercises are in the form of emails, letters, conversations or short articles. You can use these as models for writing or speaking practice.

To the teacher

English Grammar in Use Supplementary Exercises offers extra practice of most of the grammar points covered in English Grammar in Use new edition 2004. Much of the language is contextualised within dialogues, emails, letters, articles etc., encouraging students to consider meaning as well as form. The book can be used as self-study material or as a basis for further practice in class or as homework.

The book is designed for students who have already worked through the exercises in English Grammar in Use (or elsewhere) which are relevant to their needs, but who need more, or more challenging, practice. It is particularly useful for revision work.

The exercises are organised in the same order as the units of English Grammar in Use, and the numbers of the relevant English Grammar in Use units are shown at the top of each page. Within each group of exercises there is a progression from easier to more challenging, including exercises where students are encouraged to use their own ideas. The contextualised exercises can be used as models or springboards for speaking and writing practice of a freer nature.
Thanks

The authors would like to thank Alison Sharpe of Cambridge University Press for advice and support during the writing of this new edition, and Liz Driscoll for great editing and many helpful suggestions. Also, everyone at Kamae for their creative design work.

For trying out exercises and offering valuable comments on the original edition, thanks go to: students and staff at The British Council Young Learners' Centre, Barcelona, Spain, Anglo World, Cambridge, The Studio School, Cambridge, The International Language Academy, Cambridge. Leilo Pullini, Jon Butt, Cemille Iskenderoglu, Isidro Almendarez, Catherine Carpenter, Marco Palladino.

For providing feedback for the new edition, thanks go to: Margarida C.T. Busatto, Katie Head, Aleya Mokhtar, Graham Palmer, Rob Waring.

Complete the description with the present continuous form of suitable verbs. Use the negative where necessary.

Mr and Mrs Clark and Percy by David Hockney, 1970
This is a painting of two people and their cat. Mr Clark is sitting on a chair. Mrs Clark is sitting near him. They are speaking at each other, but not at the viewer. Mrs Clark is wearing a long dress. Mr Clark has trousers and a jumper, but he has no shoes. Percy is on Mr Clark's lap and he is reading something in the garden. The sun is outside, but the room is a bit dark. We can see part of a picture which is on the wall behind Mrs Clark. There's a vase of lilies on the table, and a book beside it.

Choose a picture or photograph you like and describe what is happening in it.
Complete the text with the present simple form of the verbs.

Tony Hunt, a journalist, is interviewing Leila Markham, an environmental scientist.

TONY: So tell me, Leila, why is it important to save the rainforests?
LEILA: There are a number of reasons. One is that many plants which could be useful in medicine (1) ... (grow) in the rainforest. We (2) (not / know) all the plants, but there are thousands and thousands of them. Researchers (3) (try) to discover their secrets before they are destroyed.

TONY: I see. What other reasons are there?
LEILA: Well, have you heard that the world (4) (get) warmer?

TONY: Do you mean what scientists call ‘global warming’?
LEILA: That’s right. The rainforests have always had an important influence on our weather. They (5) (disappear) at a terrifying rate and people (6) (not / do) enough to save them.

TONY: But I (7) (enjoy) warm sunshine. Is global warming really such a problem?
LEILA: You know that the polar regions (8) (consist) of millions of tons of ice. If they (9) (melt), the level of the sea will rise and cause terrible floods. Many scientists (10) (believe) that temperatures (11) (already / rise). We must do everything we can to prevent global warming, and that includes preserving the rainforests!

TONY: Thank you, Leila, and good luck in your campaign.
LEILA: Thank you.

Choose the correct alternative.

Edison, Thomas Alva (1847–1931)
US inventor

Thomas Edison (1) started / was starting work on the railway when he was twelve, selling newspapers and snacks. There were long periods with nothing for him to do, so he (2) built / was building himself a little laboratory in the luggage van. He could carry out experiments there when he (3) didn't sell / wasn't selling things to passengers. He also (4) joined / was joining a library and (5) read / was reading every single book in it.

One day, when he (6) waited / was waiting at a station, he (7) noticed / was noticing a small boy. The boy (8) played / was playing by the track, unaware that a train (9) approached / was approaching. Edison (10) ran / was running out and (11) grabbed / was grabbing the child just in time. The child's father was so grateful that he (12) offered / was offering to teach Edison to be a telegraph operator. Edison accepted the offer and soon he (13) had / was having regular lessons. After a year, he was good enough to get a job in the telegraph office. He continued to read and experiment whenever he (14) had / was having time. At twenty-one he (15) left / was leaving the telegraph office to devote all his time to being an inventor. He (16) went on / was going on to invent the electric light bulb, the phonograph and the movie camera.

Put the verbs into the correct form: past simple or past continuous.

My sister Naomi (1) met (meet) her husband when she (2) travelled (travel) round New Zealand. She and some friends (3) toured (tour) the South Island when they (4) stopped (stop) in Christchurch for a few days. While her friends (5) shopped (shop), she (6) went (go) to look round an art gallery. She (7) looked (look) at a sculpture when a young man (8) came (come) into the room and (9) started (start) to put it into his rucksack. She (10) called (call) the security guard because she (11) thought (think) the young man (12) tried (try) to steal it. She (13) was very embarrassed to discover that the sculpture (14) belonged (belong) to the young man. However, while he (15) packed (pack) it away, they (16) chatted (chat) and then he (17) asked (ask) her to have a coffee with him. They (18) got married (get married) three months later.
Colin Boyle was born in 1983 near Dublin, Ireland. In 1996 he became seriously ill. While he (1) was recovering, his uncle (2) gave him an old drumkit. He enjoyed playing and practised in a friend’s garage every evening. One day in 1998, John Leaf, the manager of several successful musicians, (3) passed the garage when he (4) heard Colin practising. He (5) rang on the garage door and (6) invited Colin to appear in one of the concerts he (7) organised that year. Colin, however, (8) refused Leaf’s invitation, because at that time he (9) prepared for some important school exams. Colin (10) passed his exams and (11) went to university to study engineering. At university he (12) met Kim O’Malley, who (13) studied chemistry. Kim played the saxophone. Being students, they rarely (14) had much money and they usually (15) worked as waiters at weekends. One evening in April 2001, while Colin and Kim (16) served customers, the manager (17) announced that there would be no live music in the restaurant that night as the regular band could not come. Colin and Kim (18) persuaded the manager to let them play. Everyone (19) was amazed to hear how good they (20) were. In the next six months Colin and Kim (21) earned so much money they (22) decided to leave university and go on tour. Their success has continued ever since.

Subject: Indian CDs

Dear Anita,

Thanks for the email, which I received yesterday. I feel much better now although my leg still hurts. If I go too far, I can't imagine why you were believing all those stories. Last weekend I visited some friends who let me spend the summer in a holiday house near here. I arrived at their house quite easily, but while I was home, my leg began to ache really badly. So this week I must be more careful.

I'm very pleased you found that website about Indian music that you mentioned for. I can lend you some CDs if you want. I must stop now because I'm rather tired. Please email me again soon. I'm OK, but you know me, I get bored very quickly!

Love, Alice

Sam is the captain of his local football team. He's talking to his brother, Dave.

SAM: Dave, I'm worried about the team.

DAVE: But why? (You win) every game this season.

SAM: Yeah, (we are) very lucky. That's the problem now.

DAVE: How come?

SAM: Well, (we practise) twice a week this season and (that really makes) a difference. Now, some of the guys say that's not necessary because (we always win). I'm afraid that if (we not practise) so often, we may lose our matches. (We play) Donnington on Saturday and (everyone agrees) they're a really strong team. The trouble is, (we not practise) since Monday.

DAVE: I can see (you have) a problem. What can you do?

SAM: I think the problem is really Colin.

DAVE: The big guy (who play) for you since last season?

SAM: Yes. (He usually scores) most of our goals. Since the summer (he arrives) for training really late. When I try to talk to him, (he refuses) to listen to what (I say).

DAVE: Well, tell him he can't play if (he not listens) to you.

SAM: I guess I'll have to. (I don't like) it, What if he gets angry and leaves the team?

DAVE: I'm sure he won't.

SAM: (I hope not).

Twenty-five years ago few people realised that computers were about to become part of our daily lives. This short period of time has seen enormous changes in business, education and public administration. Jobs which took weeks to complete in the past are now carried out in minutes. People who spend all day copying and checking calculations are now freed from these boring tasks. Students have become as familiar with hardware and software as their parents were with pencils and exercise books. Computerisation of public records has enabled government departments to analyse the needs of citizens in detail.

Some of us may wonder, however, whether life has improved as a result of these changes. Many jobs disappear, for example, when intelligent machines take over the work. Employers complain that clerical staff become dependent on calculators and cannot do simple arithmetic. There are fears that governments do not do enough to ensure that personal information held on computers is really kept secret. Certainly, many people may now be wondering whether the spread of computers will bring us as many problems as it solves.
Alex wants to go to an art college and is being interviewed by Tom Smith, one of the lecturers. Complete the questions which Tom asks him. Read the whole conversation before you begin.

TOM: Right, Alex, let's find out something about you. When did you leave school?
ALEX: Five years ago, actually.
TOM: And where since then?
ALEX: Well, I’ve had several jobs.
TOM: What first?
ALEX: I worked in a café for about a year. I needed to save a lot of money.
TOM: Why the money?
ALEX: I wanted to travel a bit before I started studying.
TOM: Where to go?
ALEX: Well, the Middle East, Latin America, Australia...
TOM: Wow! And all those places?
ALEX: No, not yet. I've been to Brazil and Peru so far. And I spent some months in Turkey.
TOM: Where there?
ALEX: With some friends near Izmir. It was great.
TOM: You're very lucky. And now you want to come to college. (some work to show me?)
ALEX: Um, yes, I've got some paintings here.
TOM: Where these?
ALEX: Mostly in Turkey.
TOM: anything in South America?
ALEX: No, I didn't have time really. And I was travelling light, so I just did some pencil sketches. They're behind the paintings.
TOM: Well, Alex, I'm very impressed. When interested in painting and drawing?
ALEX: I think I always have been.
TOM: I can believe that. This work is very good.
ALEX: Thank you very much.

GARY: (I be too angry. And cold. I wait) outside the cinema for three-quarters of an hour.
KYLIE: But why? (you not get) my note?
GARY: What note?
KYLIE: The note (I leave) here yesterday afternoon.
GARY: What are you taking about?
KYLIE: (I go) past the cinema yesterday lunchtime when (I notice) that (they change) the film. So (I put) a note under your door to tell you.
GARY: (I not find) a note.
KYLIE: It must be here. Let me look. Yes, it's here, under the mat.
GARY: Oh, right. I'm sorry I was angry. It's just that, well, while (I wait), (I worry) about (I see) you in the café. (You laugh) with your friends and (I realise) that (you sit) there in the warm with them all evening. That's why (I lose) my temper.
KYLIE: Never mind. Let's forget it. Where shall we go now?
GARY: What's on at the cinema, then?
KYLIE: A new musical. (My sister see) it yesterday.
GARY: Oh, you must be tired of hearing it.
KYLIE: I am. Let's just go and have something to eat, shall we?
GARY: Yes, that's a good idea.

From: Robin Nicholas
To: Helena Shakespeare
Subject: Seeing you again

Helene

It was good to see you last week and to get your email yesterday.

Sorry to hear you lost your rap CD on the journey home. I’ve looked for it, but it definitely isn’t in our car. I think you 1. may have left it on the train. Why not phone the lost property office? It is down the side of your seat. Someone 2. may have found it and handed it in. Of course, if they like rap music, they 3. may be coming here. Anyway, as far as I remember, you 4. could have left it here, because you were listening to it on the way to the station.

And now my news. Guess what? 5. Could we be going to your part of the world next month! There is a conference in your town which my boss wanted to attend, but now he’s heard that some important clients 6. may be visiting our office at that time.

So, we 7. could be coming to each other sooner than we expected. Let’s hope so. Of course it’s not settled yet. I’ll email as soon as I know for certain.

See you,
Robin

From: Anna James
To: Gary Newlands
Subject: Travel tips

Gary, I know you haven’t travelled in this part of the world before so I’d better give you a few tips to save you time and trouble.

First, you make sure you get to the airport really early because you always queue for ages at check-in. Then you go through passport control and so on.

You take something good to read because you’ll have quite a long wait in the departure lounge. At least you be able to sit down there. When your flight’s called, you follow an official out to your plane.

You take very heavy hand luggage because you carry it yourself and there aren’t any trolleys. Everyone agrees there be some, of course, but there aren’t. The flight is quite short. You get a meal, which you eat even if it doesn’t taste very interesting, because you have a long bus journey at the other end. A colleague will meet you off the bus.

If you have any questions, email me and I’ll get back to you as soon as I can. Anna

Dear Ryan,

It was great to hear from you. Thanks for the congratulations and good wishes. I'll pass them on to Charlie when I see him at the weekend. Of course we're very excited about getting married, and financially easy too, needless to say. You are now my met.

Well, it's quite a funny story. (1) Do you remember I failed one of my final exams? That meant I had to spend part of the summer in college. And that meant I couldn't go on holiday with my family.

(2) The travel company refused to give me a refund because I cancelled too late. I was really fed up about not going on holiday with Mum and Dad. Then something nice happened. (3) I think the travel agent felt sorry for me because he had failed his final exams when he was a student. (4) Anyway, we had a cancellation on a tour which started later in the summer. So he was able to offer to transfer my booking. I was really pleased. (5) My father was pleased too, as transferring the booking meant that it meant the money wasn't being wasted. So I went on this tour. And I met this young man. He was on his own too. (6) He told me his girlfriend should have been with him, but they had a row and she'd refused to come. (7) We were the only ones travelling alone, so we found ourselves going round the sights together. (8) He hadn't read about the places we were visiting and I spent most of my time telling him about them. And that was it really. We found we'd fallen in love. (9) Wasn't it lucky I failed that exam? That's how I met my future husband.

Now I must rush off and do some shopping. Will you come and stay soon? It'd be lovely if you could meet Charlie. Write soon. What have you been up to recently?

Lots of love,
Cherry

Bernie and Martin share a room at college. Read what they say about each other. Then write sentences beginning I wish he would / wouldn't.

MARTIN

It's dreadful having to share a room with Bernie. He's so untidy! His books are all over the place, he never washes his coffee cup, he leaves dirty clothes around the room - it's such a mess I can't work. And he comes in late in the evening when I'm trying to sleep and lies in bed watching television. I can't stand it! I'm going to look for a room on my own.

The trouble with Martin is that he never relaxes. He works so hard. He gets angry, but he won't tell me what's wrong. And he interferes with my possessions. He moves my books around so I can't find them. It's not much fun sharing a room with Martin.

Bernie says:

I wish Martin would relax sometimes.

Martin says:

I wish Bernie wouldn't leave his books all over the place.
Complete the conversations using wish

1. SUE: My mother’s really angry with me.
   PAM: Why?
   SUE: Because she found out I left my job.
   PAM: Oh, yes. I told her that.
   SUE: Well, I wish you hadn’t told her. It’s not your business.
   PAM: I’m sorry.

2. TONY: Have you seen Ben’s new jacket? I bet it was expensive.
   ANA: He told me it cost him £500.
   TONY: I wish I had as much money as him.
   ANA: Well, you may not be rich, but you’re much better-looking than Ben.
   TONY: Am I?

3. GARY: You seem to enjoy dancing with Lionel.
   JANE: Yes, I do. He’s a very good dancer.
   GARY: I wish I learned to dance when I was young.
   JANE: You could learn now.
   GARY: Oh, I’d feel stupid in a dancing class at my age.

4. EVA: I went to Norway last month.
   MAY: Really? My brother’s living in Oslo now.
   EVA: I wish I knew I could have visited him.
   MAY: Yes, it’s a pity. You must tell me if you’re going there again.

5. FRED: My parents moved to New York last month.
   ANDREW: How do they like it?
   FRED: My mother likes it, but my father misses their old home.
   He wishes he didn’t move there.
   ANDREW: Perhaps he’ll get used to it.
   FRED: I doubt it.

6. JANICE: You haven’t seen my car keys, have you?
   WENDY: No I haven’t.
   JANICE: I wish I knew what I’d done with them.
   WENDY: I hope you didn’t leave them in the car door.
   JANICE: So do I!

7. KAY: My brothers are digging a swimming pool.
   JILL: That sounds like hard work!
   KAY: It is. Actually, I suspect they wish they never started.
   But they can’t stop now. There’s a great big hole in the middle of the garden.
   JILL: Yes, I see what you mean.

DARING RAID AT LOCAL HOTEL

Thieves (1) held the manager of the Ridgeway Hotel at gunpoint last night during a daring raid in which they (2) took nearly £50,000 from the hotel safe. They also (3) broke into several of the bedrooms and (4) removed articles of value. The thieves made their escape through the kitchen, where they (5) damaged several pieces of equipment. They (6) injured the chef when he tried to stop them and (7) left him lying unconscious on the floor. Police (8) arrested the thieves early this morning.

The manager of the Ridgeway Hotel says, 'I'm very relieved the thieves have been caught!'

Put the verbs into the correct passive form.

1 I've collected all the documents that are needed (need) for the house sale. Can you take them to the lawyer's office to be signed (sign)?
2 Look, this is a secret. Come into the garden where we (not / overhear).
3 If you hadn't been so late for work, you wouldn't have (not / sack).
4 This office is very inefficient. The phone never answers (answer) promptly, no proper records are kept (keep), and, worst of all, no reports are written (written) since I started work here.
5 I was so worried about my garden while I was in hospital, but I have very good neighbours. When I got home, I could see that the vegetables were watered (water) every day and the grass was cut (cut) regularly.
6 Can you come to the police station? The man who is suspected (suspect) of stealing your wallet has been arrested (arrest) and is being questioned (question) at the moment. The police hope he will be identified (identify), either by you or another witness.
7 We had hoped to see several famous paintings, but the gallery was reorganised (reorganise) at the time of our visit and most of the really valuable works were moved (move) for safe keeping.

Dear Sally,

How are you? I've been having a great time here in England. I'm being looked after very well by our cousins. I (1) was taken / have been taken sightseeing twice since I arrived and I (2) have been introduced / have introduced to some of their friends, who (3) have made / were made me feel very welcome.

Last night I (4) have shown / was shown around a castle by the owner! Most of the land in this area (5) has been owned / has owned by his family for about five hundred years. Apparently the land (6) was given / has been given to them after one of his ancestors (7) was killed / has killed while trying to save the king's life. Quite romantic, isn't it?

The castle itself was a bit disappointing, to be absolutely honest. The owner told us that it (8) was suffered / suffered serious damage during a fire about thirty years ago. When it (9) was restored / restored, they (10) were added / added central heating and things like that. So once you're inside, it (11) doesn't feel / isn't felt much different to any other large, old house.

But the owner is a real character. He told us lots of stories about when he was young. He (12) was sent / sent abroad to work in a bank, but he (13) hated / was hated it. So he (14) has behaved / behaved very badly in order to (15) get sacked / got sacked. He kept us laughing for hours. I hope he (16) was invited / will be invited to our cousins' house before I leave so that I can hear some more stories.

I'll have lots more to tell you when I get back.

Read the email. Then write what Angela actually said to Della.

From: Della Rigby
To: Maggie Clark
Subject: Angela

Hi Maggie

Guess what? Last week I met Angela, who we used to work with. She told me she was still living with her parents, but she wanted to move out. She explained that her sister had found a flat they could share, and they'd looked round it the week before. It had just been decorated and they'd liked it very much, but they'd been asked to pay a month's rent in advance. Unfortunately, because she was working part-time and she didn't earn much money, she hadn't saved enough for the deposit. She said she was going to get a new job. She was being interviewed the next day, so she had to buy some new clothes for the interview. I hope Angela and her sister will invite us to their new flat when they move in!

Love,

Della
In Exercise 41, Alex, who wanted to go to an art college, was interviewed by one of the lecturers. A year later, his friend Charlie asked him about the interview, as he wanted to go to the same college. Complete Alex's answers.

CHARLIE: So, Alex, what was the interview like?
ALEX: Well, the interviewer started by asking me when I left school. And then he wanted to know where I (leave) since then. I told him I (have) several jobs. First I (work) in a café for about a year because I (need) to save a lot of money for travelling. Of course he asked me where I (want) to go and when I told him, he asked whether I (visit) all those places. I explained to him that I (be) to Brazil and Peru, and I (spend) some months in Turkey. He told me I (be) very lucky. Then he asked if I (bring) some work to show him and he looked at my work. He liked it, I think.

CHARLIE: Was that all?
ALEX: I think so. He asked me when I (become) interested in painting and drawing, and I said that I (think) I always (be). Oh, yes, and he told me my work (be) very good.

CHARLIE: I'm not surprised. It is good. I hope he'll like my stuff too.
ALEX: Oh, I think he will, actually.

Look back at your answers to exercise 116. Complete the article which the journalist wrote a month after the interview with Wilma.

Last month I was lucky enough to interview Wilma Shriek when she was in this country. I asked her how long she was going to be here and she said two months, but actually she has already gone back to America. She told me it was her first visit because she (be) here five years before, for a holiday. She told me she had a tour. When I asked her how many cities she thought about twenty. She said she (have) to have a holiday after the tour. She looked tired. But when I asked her whether she (send) a message for her fans, she told them to the concerts and have a wild time. Well, it looks as though Wilma has had too many wild times, because her manager said last week that she is now resting!
John had a row with his girlfriend, Julie. His friend Mark tried to help them get back together and talked to Julie for John.

MARK: Julie, John’s asked me to talk to you.
JULIE: I don’t want to speak to him.
MARK: Look Julie, John’s really upset.
JULIE: I’m upset too.
MARK: Will you just let me tell you his side of the story?
JULIE: I’m not interested. He promised to meet me at the restaurant, but he didn’t turn up. I don’t want to see him again.
MARK: But Julie, his car had broken down.
JULIE: So? I had my mobile with me.
MARK: But that’s the point. He tried to phone, but he couldn’t get through.
JULIE: OK, I’ll talk to him. Listen, I’m going to be late for work. I’ll meet him at six o’clock in the square.
MARK: Thanks, Julie. He’ll be really happy. And I promise he’ll be there.

Complete the conversation Mark had later with John.

JOHN: What did Julie say?
MARK: She said she (1) didn’t want to speak to you.
JOHN: Well, what did she say when you told her I was really upset?
MARK: She said she (2) too, so I asked her to let me tell her your side of the story. She said she (3) to meet her at the restaurant, but you (4) again. She said she (5) her mobile with her. So I explained you couldn’t get through, but she said she (6) you (7) to my flat and (8) on my phone. I asked her (9) me, I think she did. Anyway, she said she (10) to you. Then she said she (11) lat for work, so we had to finish. You have to meet her in the square at six o’clock.
JOHN: Thanks, Mark. I really appreciate what you’ve done for me.
MARK: That’s all right. Just don’t be late this evening.

In fact, none of these facilities is available. Please arrange for us to be transferred to a better hotel immediately.

Yours,
Anna has just met the singer Colin Boyle. (You may remember him from Exercise 16.) She is telling Ian, about the meeting. Ian wants to know exactly what Colin said to Anna and what she said to him.

IAN: Well, what was he like? Was he friendly? What did he say?
ANNA: He was really friendly. He asked me who I was.
IAN: Then what?
ANNA: He asked me where I came from.
IAN: And what did you say?
ANNA: I told him I came from Dublin, of course. Then he said that was where he was born too. Then I told him I'd been a fan of his for ages and he said that was very good to hear. Then he asked whether I was going to the concert tonight. So I told him we wanted to, but we hadn't been able to get tickets. He asked if the tickets were sold out, and I told him they'd sold all but the most expensive ones and we couldn't afford those.
IAN: And did he give you some tickets?
ANNA: No, he didn't. But he asked the concert hall manager if we could have some at the cheaper price. And the manager said 'Yes'!

Dear Stephanie,

I'm writing to tell you about the discussion I had with my father last weekend. We talked for several hours and I told him all about the plans we've made for our business. At first, he wasn't very interested, he didn't think we were old enough to run a business. However, I told him that we had already seen the bank manager, who said that the plan seemed realistic.

So then he sat down and asked me how much money we'd need to start with, and where we'd sell the stuff we made, and so on. Eventually he said to me, 'OK, it's a good plan.' I said, 'Isn't it great? I'm really looking forward to seeing you next week so we can talk to him together and get things going.'

All the best,

Neville

A PAT: Who should I ask if I want a day off?
MICK: It doesn’t really matter, except I’d advise not to ask the assistant manager. He can be very rude sometimes.
PAT: Oh, I don’t mind shouting at him. He threatened to sack me last week, but he apologised very politely later.

B SUE: I don’t trust the manager’s new secretary.
JILL: Why not?
SUE: Well, she claims to work in several other banks before she came here. But when I asked her about them, she kept changing the subject. I was wondering whether (be) friendly for a few more days and see how she behaves?
SUE: OK. I’d hate getting someone into trouble for nothing.

C ANDY: I don’t know what to do about Gemma. She’s so difficult to work with. She keeps forgetting to pass on important messages and she won’t let me help her when she’s busy.
JOAN: Have you actually talked to her about all this?
ANDY: That’s part of the problem. I’ve tried to discuss the problem with her, but she always says she’s too busy to stop and talk. I’ve even tried asking her to have lunch with me, but she doesn’t want to.
JOAN: I think I’d better have a chat with her. How long has she been like this?
ANDY: Oh, it’s several weeks now.
JOAN: Well, I’d really like to know about the problem earlier. Never mind, I’ll see what I can do.
ANDY: Thanks very much.

How to study efficiently
1 Begin by making plans you can’t possibly keep.
2 Be realistic; there’s no point in making a list of what you have to do.
3 Find a quiet place where you can study.
4 If possible, use this place only for marking each topic on your list as you complete it.
5 Check you have everything you need before jumping up to fetch things every five minutes.
6 This means you won’t waste time being interrupted.
7 Encourage yourself by starting work.

139 Use the notes to complete the advice below. Use -ing and a preposition if necessary.

How to take exams
1 Begin by reading through the exam paper carefully.
2 Make sure you know exactly what to do carefully.
3 There’s no point on one question.
4 Don’t spend too long on one question.

Dear Ruth,

Thanks very much for the lovely present you sent for Laurie. It was very kind of you. You say in your note that you haven’t got used to (1) being (be) an aunt yet. I used to (2) think (think) that becoming a father wouldn’t change me. I was wrong, of course! Life will never be the same again. We never used to (3) go (go) to bed before midnight, but now we’re asleep by ten because we’ve had to get used to (4) waking (wake) up at five o’clock. Actually, in a way, that’s good. I always used to (5) arrive (arrive) late at the office, but since Laurie was born my colleagues have got used to (6) finding (find) me hard at work by the time they arrive!

I should say, though, it hasn’t been so easy for Jenny. At first she found it very hard on her own with Laurie. She wasn’t used to (7) spending (spend) all day alone with a baby. But now she’s got to know a neighbour who also has a young baby and that helps. She used to (8) say (say) she’d go back to work when Laurie was six months, but now she’s used to (9) being (be) at home she’s beginning to enjoy herself, so she may wait until Laurie is a bit older.

Anyway, try to come and see us soon while Laurie is still small.

All the best,

Denis

TOM: She's all right. You really like her, don't you?

SID: Oh, yes. I often dream (1) taking (take) her out for a meal or a film, but I'm afraid (2) asking (ask) her.

TOM: Why?

SID: Well, I suppose I'm afraid (3) looking foolish if she refuses.

TOM: If you like her so much, you shouldn't be afraid (4) risk (risk) it. Anyway, I'm sure she won't refuse.

SID: Really? OK, I'll phone her tonight.

TOM: Good. I'm glad I've succeeded (5) persuading (persuade) you to phone her.

SID: Why do you say that?

TOM: I happen to know she rather fancies you. I told her I'd make you phone her! She'll be looking forward (6) hearing (hear) from you!

B  Brian and Phil are at work.

BRIAN: Good morning Phil, could we have a word in my office?

PHIL: Of course.

BRIAN: I'm sorry (7) having (have) to say this, but I'm afraid you failed (8) achieving (achieve) high enough sales to earn a bonus this month. I suppose the bad weather kept the customers away?

PHIL: Yes, I guess so. I'm very sorry (9) letting (let) you down this time.

BRIAN: OK, I'm sure you'll make it up soon. I'm thinking (10) sending (send) one or two junior sales staff on a course next month. Would you be interested (11) going (go)?

PHIL: Yes, I would be.

BRIAN: Good. I'll put your name on the list.

PHIL: Thank you.

C  Joanna has phoned Katie

JOANNA: I'm sorry (12) forgetting (forget) your birthday last week.

KATIE: That's OK. You were in the middle of your exams. You're allowed (13) forgetting (forget) people's birthdays on exam days!

JOANNA: That shouldn't have prevented me (14) sending (send) you a card. Did you get some from the family?

KATIE: Well, Mum was the only one (15) remembering (remember).

JOANNA: Well, she's not likely (16) forgetting (forget), is she?

KATIE: No, I suppose you're right.
Put the verbs in the correct form. Can you solve this detective puzzle?

Trevor Stern was not a popular man, in spite of his wealth. He (1) _lived_ (live) in a large house about a mile outside the village of Prenton. When he (2) _found_ (find) dead in his study, no-one (3) _cried_ (cry), not even his only daughter. It was soon clear that he (4) _murdered_ (murder).

Detective Inspector Blackledge took statements from his widow Dorothy, his seventeen-year-old daughter Lucy, his business partner Gerald Brook, and his doctor.

I (5) (not / love) my husband, he was a cold and selfish man. But I (6) (not / murder) him, either. After dinner last night he said he (7) _wanted_ (want) to check some business papers in his study. He (8) _had_ (have) a meeting with Gerald, his business partner, the next morning. He (9) _asked_ (ask) for some tea. That was about nine o'clock. I (10) _watched_ (watch) a rather exciting film on television, so I (11) _told_ (tell) Lucy to take it to him.

At quarter past nine Doctor Emerson (12) _called_ (call). I (13) _noticed_ (notice) the time because we (14) _expected_ (expect) him to come earlier. I (15) _answered_ (answer) the front door bell. Trevor (16) _shouted_ (shout) in his study. He and Lucy (17) _had_ (have) a serious row. So I (18) _took_ (take) the doctor into the sitting-room for a moment. Then Trevor stopped (19) _shouting_ (shout). I guessed Lucy (20) _went_ (go) out by the back door. Doctor Emerson went to the study. I think he wanted to persuade Trevor (21) _to go_ (go) into hospital for some tests, but Trevor (22) (not / want) to go.

I (23) _heard_ (hear) my husband shouting again several times over the next twenty minutes. He called Emerson an ignorant country doctor and later he said something like, 'There's nothing you can do!' I think Lucy (24) _came_ (come) back into the house while the doctor (25) _stayed_ (still / talk) to Trevor. I (26) _heard_ (hear) the front door bang during a moment of quiet when Trevor (27) _shouted_ (not / shout). I was tired and fed up, and went to my bedroom soon after that. My sister (28) _phoned_ (phone) and we (29) _talked_ (talk) for ages. I (30) _told_ (tell) her I (31) _decided_ (decide) to leave Trevor.
Mum (32) ...review a stupid film after dinner, so she made me (33) ...take Dad's tea into his study. It was about nine o'clock. He was in a really mean mood. He shouted at me because I (34) ...spill a few drops of tea on his desk while I (35) ...pour it. I
(36) ...not want to watch the film, so I (37) ...creep out of the house by the back door. I (38) ...decide to go down to the village and use the public phone to call Alan. He's my boyfriend.
I (39) ...never like Mum or Dad to be around when I
(40) ...talk to him. Especially yesterday, because Dad and I
(41) ...have a stupid argument about Alan the day before.

It (42) ...usually take quarter of an hour to walk to the village.
Perhaps it (43) ...take less time last night. I can't prove I (44) ...go to the village. No-one (45) ...see me while I (46) ...walk there. I (47) ...see Gerald, that's Dad's business partner. He (48) ...stand near the window in his sitting-room. He (49) ...not see me though, because it was dark outside. He (50) ...talk on the phone, I think. Alan (51) ...not answer the phone. Then I (52) ...remember he (53) ...tell me he (54) ...play in a concert that evening. So I (55) ...walk home again. I
(56) ...meet Gerald just before I (57) ...reach our house. He (58) ...look for his dog. That was about twenty to ten. I came in by the back door as quietly as possible and went to bed. I didn't want to see my parents again that evening.

I (59) ...call at the Sterns' house at 9.15. I (60) ...plan to be because I
(61) ...rather later than I (62) ...visit another patient. When Mrs Stern (63) ...
(64) ...seem rather embarrassed and
(65) ...show me into the sitting-room. I could hear Trevor Stern
(66) ...shout at someone in his study. Mrs Stern said something about teenage girls and that they (67) ...have problems with Lucy. Well, the shouting (68) ...stop almost immediately, so I (69) ...
(70) ...go to his study. Lucy (71) ...get there. I tried (72) ...explain to Trevor why he needed (73) ...have these hospital tests, but he
(74) ...not listen. He said I (75) ...be an ignorant country doctor who (76) ...not know what he (77) ...
(talk) about. I (78) ...realise it was no use (79) ... argue with him, so I (80) ...leave after only a few minutes. I was quite angry actually. I let myself out of the house without (81) ...see Lucy or Mrs Stern.
Yes, Trevor was my business partner. We (82) .................................................. (not / be) really friends. Yes, my house (83) .................................................. (be) just round the corner from the Sterns'. I (84) .................................................. (live) here for two years now. I (85) ..................................................

I can't really tell you very much about the night Trevor died. I took my dog for a long walk that evening. I (88) .................................................. (go) up on the hills, away from the village. Then the stupid dog (89) .................................................. (go) after a rabbit or something and I (90) .................................................. (lose) him in the dark. I (91) .................................................. (look) for him when I (92) .................................................. (meet) Lucy, as a matter of fact. She (93) .................................................. (walk) up the road towards their house. She (94) .................................................. (seem) rather upset. I told her I (95) .................................................. (not / see) it.

She (97) .................................................. (go) into her house and I (98) .................................................. (find) the dog a few minutes afterwards. I was back home by just after quarter to ten.

Detective Inspector Blackledge showed the statements to her colleague, Sergeant Ross.

BLACKLEDGE: Well, Ross. What do you think? Who killed Stern?
ROSS: I don't know. It (99) .................................................. (not / be) his wife. She (100) .................................................. (not / even / go) into the study.

BLACKLEDGE: But she admits she didn't love him. Do you think she's in love with the doctor?
ROSS: It's possible. And perhaps Trevor Stern (101) .................................................. (find out). But we know the doctor was at the hospital by ten o'clock that night. And that's at least half an hour from the Sterns' house.

BLACKLEDGE: But that (102) .................................................. (mean) he (103) .................................................. (leave) the Sterns' house before half past nine.
ROSS: Exactly. Also, Dorothy Stern told her sister she (104) .................................................. (leave) her husband. She didn't need (105) .................................................. (murder) him.

BLACKLEDGE: Yes, and there's something about Lucy's story which doesn't quite fit. Let's see, what did Gerald Brook say?
ROSS: That's it! Lucy (106) .................................................. (not / walk) to the village and back if he (107) .................................................. (meet) her at twenty to ten. She (108) .................................................. (still / shout at) by her father at 9.15.

BLACKLEDGE: But look at all the statements. The times don't fit.
ROSS: Neither do the facts. Someone (109) .................................................. (tell) lies.

BLACKLEDGE: I think it's time we (110) .................................................. (make) an arrest.

Who did they arrest? See page 120.

Mary and Liz are about to go on holiday together. Mary has come to collect Liz in her car.

MARY: Hello, Liz, are you ready?
LIZ: Yes, just about. All my luggage is here. I hope I haven't got too many things.

MARY: Don't worry. There's plenty of space in the car.
LIZ: Oh, good. I've packed rather a lot of things. I haven't had much experience of travelling in the mountains, so I wasn't sure what to bring.

MARY: As long as you've got some warm sweaters for the evenings, and a good raincoat, you should be OK. The weather in the mountains is wonderful, but the scenery can change very suddenly.

LIZ: Well, we've got a lovely paper to start with.

MARY: You're right there. And I'm sure you'll like our room at the hotel, because they've promised me the ones I had last year when I was with my brother. Did you pack the guidebook, by the way?

LIZ: Yes, and I packed some scenery, so we can do some drawing.

MARY: That's a good idea. It'd be nice to keep some sort of diary too.

LIZ: Yes. We might make an album afterwards, with words and pictures. And I'm sure I'm going to have some great views to write about.

MARY: Well, the views are like nothing you've ever seen. And there's always music or something in one of the villages every evening. We'll buy the local when we get there and find out what's going on.

LIZ: Well, I'm ready.

MARY: OK, let's go!

Prepositions of time

Put in at, for, during, by, until or in.

The city of London was founded by the Romans during the year 43 AD. During the next few years it quickly became the main trading centre in Britain.

Two hundred years after the Romans left, the city was almost forgotten. Its full importance did not return until the end of that century, the government of England was based in Westminster and the Tower of London had been started. In the Middle Ages London continued to grow and in the time of Shakespeare, it had become a prosperous capital city with many fine buildings. Unfortunately, most of these buildings were made of wood and in 1666 they were almost all destroyed by a fire which lasted several days. This was a great tragedy for the people living there, but it is true that many of the areas which are most attractive today were planned in the rebuilding which followed.

Answer the questions, beginning each answer with a preposition.

1. When's your birthday?
2. What year were you born?
3. When do you usually go shopping?
4. What time of the year do you go on holiday?
5. When do you watch TV?
6. When did you last drink a glass of fruit juice?
7. How long have you been studying English?
THE WAY PEOPLE WORK

Eleanor is a nurse who works the night shift. How does she manage?

'Well, I finish work (1) at 6.30 am. Then I go home, have a bath and try to be in bed (2) by half past eight. (3) The same time as I'm getting ready for bed, Jeffrey, my husband, and our four-year-old daughter, Elaine, are getting up. Jeffrey takes her to nursery school, which she started

(4) last year. I usually sleep (5) about three o'clock (6) the housework done (8)

the same time.

When my husband comes home, we eat. If I'm lucky, I can relax (9)

an hour before putting Elaine to bed. Then I do some of the housework that didn't get done earlier. I allow plenty of time to get to the hospital because if

I'm not there (10) I arrive.

time, another nurse will have to go on working

(11) I arrive.

I'm often very tired (12) the time I finish, but I don't really mind. There's a special atmosphere in the hospital (13) night. Of course, I have a free day (14) every week. And the hours suit us (15) the moment anyway. I may want to work

(16) the day when Elaine goes to a different school. Perhaps I'll be ready for a change

(17) then.'
